

Teach Week: Arming Yourself with Analysis in the Current Political Moment
February 27 – March 2nd, 2017

Opening Keynote: Dave Archambault Sr.

Drawing the Line at daPL*

Responding to 'Trumpism' and the Legacies of Settler Colonialism

*Dakota Access Pipeline

Photograph: Lucas Jackson/Reuters

GEORGE PEARL HALL AUDITORIUM MONDAY FEBRUARY 27 5:30 PM

Monday

Community Economics: Understanding the Economics of Right and Left Populism

Where / When: GPH P135 / 11:00 am – 1:30 pm

Maize, Decolonial Love, and Indigenous Futurity: Countering U.S. State Violence

Where / When: GPH 210 / 2:00 – 4:30 pm

Tuesday

Fire Management and Forest Ecology in an Era of Climate Change Denial

Where / When: GPH 209 / 10:00 – 12:30 pm

Understanding 'Trumpism' through Racism and Whiteness

Where / When: GPH P135A / 11:00 – 12:30 pm

Qualitative Research Methods: Tools for Analyzing Political Speech and Hate Speech

Where / When: GPH 139 / 2:00 – 4:30 pm

Privatization of Public Lands; The Impact to Traditional Communities of New Mexico

Where / When: GPH Auditorium / 6:00 – 8:00 pm

Wednesday

Identifying and Mapping Community Emancipatory Cartographies

Where / When: GPH 210 / 11:00 – 1:00 pm

Water Quality Protection in a Time of Environmental Regulation Uncertainty

Where / When: GPH P135A / 2:45 – 5:15 pm

Sanctuary: A Rising Resistance Movement

Where / When: GPH Auditorium / 3:30 – 5:00 pm

Thursday

Urbanism of Resistance presented by Resource Center for Raza Planning

Where / When: GPH P104 / 11:00 – 1:00 pm

Other talks: An End to Mass Incarceration? / Fact-checking, Finding, and Interpreting Data in an Era of Misuse and Censorship